Response

As Year 9 students begin choosing their option subjects, we ask You to guide them with wisdom and peace. Help them to recognise their gifts, to see the strengths you have placed within them, and to make choices that will help them grow, learn, and flourish. When they feel unsure, give them calm. When they feel overwhelmed, give them clarity. When they look at their future, give them hope. Bless the families, teachers, and friends who support them, that they may offer encouragement, patience, and understanding. May each student choose paths that bring joy, purpose, and opportunities to become the people You are shaping them to be.

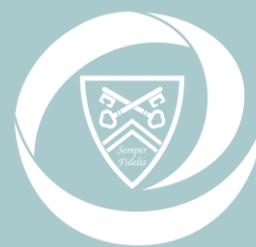

Amen.
